Boston Company.
This well known opera company concluded an engagement at Kansas City last night and will pass through Sedalia at 11:15 a. m. to-day. All the young men in the city who desire to ogle the chorus girls can be on hand at the Union depot when the train arrives.

Fell Down Stairs.

A man was found in a very intoxicated condition, yesterday afternoon, about five o'clock, lying at the Missouri Pacific depot, by acting depot-master Smith, who conveyed the stranger to the calaboose and had him locked up. Upon the inebriated fellow was found a bottle of alcohol, and an envelope addressed to D. T. Bates, Warrensburg. He was bruised about the head and claimed to have fallen down a stairway somewhere about Sedalia. He will appear before the police justice to-morrow.

Halstead's Court.

There was a little matinee among the coons in Justice Halstead's court yesterday. The case was that of Malinda Brown, charged with disturbing the peace of Kate Franklin, and May Jackson, and grew out of a row between the picnicians, which finally culminated in a sort of general inter-family affair in which all the parties became participants and used anything but flattering language one to another. The criminal court being in session, and all the attorneys busy, it devolved upon his honor to act as judge jury prosecuting attorney and counsel for the defense all of which functions he discharged with his usual gravity and wound up with a general lecture to the whole crew and a fine of $1, and costs against the defendant less his own fees, which were knocked off on the ground that Mrs. Brown was a widow.

At the Hospital.

The following patients have been admitted to the Missouri Pacific railway hospital since last report:
Walter Harris, section laborer, Omaha, rheumatism.
J. W. Toy, engineer, Denison, dyspepsia.
Wm. Reid, bridge carpenter, Holden, tonsillitis.
John Mahan, wiper, Muscogee, I. T., scald of left hand and wrist.
Wm. Cambren, McAlister, I. T., general debility.
Discharged: Warren Leeman and John Broderick.

Giving 'em A Stiff.

Col. James Story, of Sedalia, who travels for a St. Louis house, met a parcel of friends at the Laclede hotel the other day, and in the party was Cliff Saunders, a well known St. Louis reporter and champion prevaricator. Cliff then wrote that Jim said that there was to be a starch factory established at Sedalia. Now if Jim did really tell those people that sort of an anecdote he was "giving 'em a stiff," for prudential reasons not necessary to mention here.

An Old Citizen Gone.

A metallic burying case was sent from this place to Jefferson City yesterday, for the burial of J. B. Kaiser, late proprietor of the Madison house at that place, who died Friday night. Mr. Kaiser is well known all over the state, and his many friends will deeply regret his demise. The case sent yesterday weighed 450 pounds and is one of the finest and handsomest to be had.

A Jolly Party.

The following named young gentlemen occupied an upper tier box at the Opera House last night: W. S. Roe, E. H. Harris, H. C. Ucker, Pilot Grove; Tobe Bradley, Buncheon; C. A. Houx, Lewis Levens, Boonville; L. D. Bolton, J. N. McMin, Versailles. They enjoyed the play and took in the sights of the city after the Opera House had closed.

Making Mullies.

Mr. John Gentry yesterday had the horns taken from a number of his short horn cattle. This is a new process recently adopted for the purpose of economy in feeding and shipping stock. It is claimed that the removal of the horns is accomplished with little pain or inconvenience to the cattle and much profit to the owners.

Police Court.

Gus and Louis Volte, a couple of German tramps, who were found making a lodging room of a box car, were fined $5 each by the recorder yesterday, on the charge of trespass upon private property.

Michael Carty, a plain drunk, was the only other delinquent, he paid the usual $5 fine.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

FOR OVERWORKED FEMALES.
Dr. J. P. Cowan, Ashland, Ohio, says: "It proves satisfactory as a nerve tonic; also in dyspeptic conditions of the stomach, with general debility, such as we find in overworked females, with nervous headache and its accompaniments."

Election Yesterday.

An election for a board of trustees, consisting of nine members, of the University Land Company, was held yesterday at the office of Wilkerson & Montgomery. The result was as follows:

T. B. Anderson, D. H. Smith, B. G. Wilkerson, C. G. Taylor, W. P. Consley, J. W. Truxel, J. D. Crawford, J. R. Barrett, C. Newkirk.

The board will reorganize next Saturday night, at which time the new members will take their seats.

SLIM SARA'S STOMACH.

Will Bring the Bernhardt Before the Outraged Law.

New York, April 8.—When Sara Bernhardt returns here from her Boston engagement, she will have to appear in the police court to answer a charge of assault and battery preferred by Charles Stohl, an exiled count, employed as a waiter at the Hoffman House. Stohl was assigned to attend to the gastronomic wants of the divine Sara, exclusively. One day he was a few minutes late in bringing her lunch to her and the great French artist, thoroughly enraged, assailed him with piquant French epithets and kicked the tray containing dishes and vials out of his hands.

WHAT!

The Paper Published for the People Now on Earth Would Like to Know.

—Where Howe got his Easter offering?
—If all of Major Cole's converts are sticking?

—If the dynamiters on trial are not on the anxious seat?
—If A. K. B. don't think his presence with decent people is loathsome?

—The reason the young lady in Little Rock had a "chill" after talking to Linn Higginfriz?

—Now the warm weather is here and the dust still in the streets of Sedalia, if Tom Meyers will still stay away from Sedalia?

—If the "Local Board" will send for J. Volney Ryan, and if the young gentlemen will still send his "sister" bouquets of spring flowers?

Among the Anarchists.

Chicago, April 9.—Delegates from all the Turnvereins of the Chicago district will meet to-morrow at Turner hall. This will be a special convention for the purpose of considering the action of the Vororts, or the central committee in the anarchist cases. Some time ago the town of Jefferson Turnverein sent a circular letter to the Vorort asking it in the name of the Associated Verein to protest against the verdict in the anarchist cases. This circular the Vorort sent to the other Turnvereins in the district with a request that they vote upon it, the Vororts incidentally giving its approval to the proposition. But the other Vereins sat down upon it by a large majority and continued to issue the call for to-morrow's convention. The specific object is to oust the present central committee of which John Glory, a retired socialist, is president.

Fired A Coon.
Texarkana, Ark., April 6.—This morning as a Texas Pacific freight train was pulling out of the yard, a brakeman discovered a negro boy aged about 12 years stealing a ride, and without any fuss or ceremony at once seized him and threw him headlong from the train. The boy fell with one leg across the track, and the cars passing over it crushed that member. The boy will die. The brakeman has not been arrested and is probably at Dallas at this time.

Why He Wanted A Pop.
New York, April 9.—Nichols Stauck to-day, applied to the police for permission to carry a pistol. When asked what he wanted with it, he said: "I want to shoot Jake Miller as soon as I can find him. Jake has been acquainted with my wife a long time. Yesterday they ran away together." He did not get the permit.

Held For Murder.
Kansas City, April 9.—J. Willis, charged with the murder of Smith, the colored hod carrier, was held over on a charge of murder in the second degree, and his bond fixed at $5,000 this morning. The second charge against him, that of assault to kill Campbell, Smith's partner, was also taken to the grand jury and the bail fixed at $700. In both cases bail was given.

That Invite Again.
St. Louis, April 9.—The signatures sheets for the mammoth invitation to President Cleveland to visit this city next fall are becoming enormous. At the various depots, where the sheets are placed, there is a constant rush of men and women to sign the paper. The druggists turned in over three thousand signatures to-day.

Commissioned.

DEAD.

Major J. B. Kaiser, of the Madison House, Jefferson City, Passes Away.

Jefferson City, April 9.—Major J. B. Kaiser, proprietor of the Madison House, this city, died last night at 10:30 o'clock, after a short but severe illness from a complication of diseases. His funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon from the Madison House at 3 o'clock. The remains will be buried in the new Catholic cemetery. The procession, the weather favorable, will be the largest and most imposing witnessed in this city for years. The pall-bearers will be Postmaster McCarthy, Maj. Kuchitzky, labor commissioner, Maj. Vogdes and Sam Engleton of the secretary of state's office, J. W. Schulte, of the Dulle Milling Company, and Hon. L. S. Bergan. The major was one of our most popular and enterprising citizens, and his death will be a serious drawback to the Madison House improvements, which he had recently commenced.

Nihilists Displeased.

New York, April 9.—The new treaty between the United States and Russia is anything but pleasing to the nihilists. Under the treaty political offenders in Russia can be arrested by the Russian police as easily in the United States as in Russia. The operating clause being the providing for the extradition of persons attempting the life of the Czar. It transpired yesterday that an association known as the Russian-American National League has been formed here, of which Leo Hartman, the nihilist leader is the president. The association has a membership of nearly 2,000 and its object is to protect the interests of Russians coming to this country, and aid the nihilists at home in their struggle for freedom.

Married A Cooness.

New Brunswick, N. J., April 9.—Rocky Hill, near here, is in throes of a social sensation, just now. For some time past Wm. Van Tilburgh, a young white farmer, had been assiduous in his attention to Miss Lizzie Simmons, a pretty young mulatto girl, the daughter of a rich colored farmer. The latter objected to Van Tilburgh's attentions to his daughter and ordered him away from the premises. Early yesterday morning the couple eloped and went to Princeton where a colored minister married them. The groom's family are highly respectable and will make an effort to break the marriage.

Liberty's Home.

New York, April 9.—As the weather gets more pleasant the crowds that visit Miss Liberty perched upon her pedestal on Beed's Island grows larger every day. Louis Delmer, chairman of the American committee, spent most of the day mapping out a plan for improving the appearance of the ground which surrounds the statue. A beautiful lawn will be constructed surrounded by choice plants. The work of finishing the steps on the approach to the pedestal will also shortly be completed.

A Republican Row.

St. Louis, April 9.—A libel suit for $50,000 was filed this afternoon by Chester H. Krum, on behalf of Frank O'Neil, managing editor of the Republican, against the Springfield printing company. Mr. O'Neil complains of a publication on the first of March which was intended to defame him and expose him to ridicule and contempt. It had reference to the editorial attitude of the Republican upon the failure of the Legislature to pass a railroad bill, and embodied an article from another paper, which imputed corrupt motives to the Republican editorial claim.

Building Associations Incorporated.
Jefferson City, April 9.—The following building and loan associations filed articles to-day: The Irish-American Savings and Building Association, St. Louis; capital, $400,000.
The Advance Building and Loan Association, St. Louis; capital, $500,000; and Cameron Building and Loan Association, of Cameron, Clinton county, capital, $100,000.

The Interstate Commerce Bill.
Washington, D. C., April 9.—Senator Spooner, who took a prominent part in the debate on the interstate commerce bill, said to-day in regard to the criticism which the suspension of the fourth section has evoked: "The commission has by no means exceeded its legitimate powers. There was never more complete discretion vested in anybody than in this board. The law confers broader powers than have yet been exercised."

Talmage Pleads for Kissane.
New York, April 9.—In his lectures last evening Rev. Dr. T. DeWitt Talmage referred to the Kissane case and declared that the exposure now, after the ex-criminal has lived an honest and righteous life for 33 years, was nothing but revenge and blackmail. Kissane was in real life the Jean Val Jean of romance. His many years of good behavior and righteousness should release him from the iniquities of the past.

More Strikers.
Chicago, April 9.—The bricklayers, hod carriers, and stone masons have decided to assist the striking carpenters by refusing to do any work on buildings being put up by contractors, holding out against the demand of the carpenters.

Pendergrast on Trial.

Will Move To-Day.

Hanibal, Mo. April 9.—[Special] Three special trains will arrive here to-morrow morning from Chicago enroute to Kansas city carrying the American opera company. The first train will consist of one locomotive one baggage car, one chair car two coaches and four sleepers and will carry the principal members of those who wear scanty wardrobe and sing on step ladders. The other trains will carry the chorus singers and baggage. The special trains will arrive at Moberly about 10 a. m. and Kansas city about 1 p. m.

After The Weather Clerk.

New York, April 9.—To-morrow is Easter Sunday and Captain Greeley, chief of the weather bureau, has been asked to arrange for it to be a nice day on account of the ladies, who will make their appearance at the churches arrayed in a glory of which Solomon never dreamed, and they will be grateful to Captain Greeley for his thoughtfulness. Elaborate musical programs will be prominent features in the fashionable New York churches, to-morrow. Everybody, that is anybody, will go to hear them, and to show their neighbors what they can do in the way of spring costumes.

Fifth avenue will be a scene to gladden the hearts of the milliners and dressmakers and fill with gloom that of the gentleman who knows from bitter experience the size of the bills.

War Again Likely.

London, April 9.—It is no longer possible to overlook the fact that the war scare is reviving. For some days past the foreign correspondents have been reporting occurrences and opinions unimportant separate, but when taken together are creating fresh alarm here. The expulsion of Antoine, the tearing up of the imperial flag by Alsatian recruits, and the imprisonment of French sympathizers has aroused strong feeling. The Paris correspondent of the Standard, telegraphs this morning that the fear in well informed quarters there is, it is stated, that Bismarck having made sure that Russia cannot give aid for the present, thinks it best for Germany to fight now than later. Attention is drawn to this condition of affairs by the fact that the Davenport Naval authorities received orders that three of the six fastest and most powerful torpedo cruisers, now building for the government, are to be got ready for sea with all dispatch without waiting for the final trials of their machinery. It is freely stated in Davenport that this order has been given in consequence of the unsatisfactory state of foreign affairs.

Hewitt as a Reformer.

New York April 9.—Mayor Hewitt's administration is not in all respects pleasing to many politicians. He is almost as much of a civil-service reformer as President Cleveland. There are nine commissioners in the various departments in the city to be appointed in the next thirty days. His honor has been pressed by the different factions of his party for recognition in the appointments, but he announces his intention not only to fill the position regardless of faction but to do so regardless of party. The only questions to be asked in regard to the appointments are as to the capacity and honesty of the appointee. Mr. Hewitt says he will not be bothered by this confounded pressure for office. It is his determination to make all the appointments for the best interest of the city.

Blaine Better.

St. Louis, April 9.—A dispatch was received here this morning from Col. Copinger, at Ft. Gibson, stating that Mr. Blaine was much better and that no danger was apprehended.

The St. Louis Bridge Blocked.
East St. Louis, April 9.—Shortly before noon to-day an engine and five cars jumped the track at the bridge approach. The engine and the cars were wrecked and completely blocked the tracks, preventing the passage of trains to and from St. Louis over the bridge. The damage is about $18,000.

The P.D. Invite.

Washington, April 9.—The invitation got up by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, with 200,000 signatures attached, will surpass anything of the kind ever known in the history of the country. The special committee is appointed. Mayor Francis will be here in a few days. The presentation of the invitation will take place in the east parlor, Senator Vest acting as spokesman.

Gladstone's Appeal.

London, April 9.—Mr. Gladstone to-day, issued a manifesto to the miners of Northern Great Britain, calling their attention to the great mass meeting at Hyde Park Monday, and appealing to them to protest against the coercion bill.

A Printing Office Burned.

More Miners Strike.

Salem, Ill., April 9.—The coal miners have struck for an increase in wages from 13 1/2 to 15 cents per box. A protracted strike is probable.

BY FAST MAIL.

The Haddock Murder Case at Sioux City—Meeting of the Presbytery at California.

—Bob Dougherty, a negro boy who killed Charles Davis, a colored barber, with a brick, pleaded guilty in the Criminal Court, Friday, in St. Louis, to manslaughter in the first degree, and, being under age, was sentenced to a year in the jail. A nolle prosequi was entered in the case of Frank Bash, charged with being an accessory to the killing. A crowd of colored children were annoying Davis by throwing stones, tin cans and dirt into his place, and he ran after them. Dougherty picked up a stone or brick and struck him in the head with it, inflicting an injury from which the barber died a week later. Val Burk had also been indicted as an accessory to the crime, but his case was dismissed some time ago.

—The second day's session of the Missouri Presbytery at California, Mo., was taken up in hearing reports and discussions of various matters of interest to the church. The treasurer's report showed that over $2,500 had been contributed for mission and other benevolent work. Dr. Robertson, of Fulton, for many years the faithful treasurer, resigned on account of age and infirmity, and Mr. Grant, of Fulton, was elected his successor. The most important action of the body was the adoption of an overture to the General Assembly, which meets in St. Louis in May, favoring the appointment of a committee from that body to confer with a similar committee from the Northern body, looking to a speedy organic union of the two assemblies. The delegates elected to the General Assembly are Rev. A. A. Plazestiel, of Columbia, and Elder E. S. Buckner, of Callaway.

—In the Haddock murder case at Sioux City, Io., Leavitt was recalled Saturday morning by the defense to identify the copies of his confession. The defense offered extracts from his confession in evidence, but on objection it was overruled. In answer to a question of the defense, Leavitt said he did not know what he did say before the coroner's jury. A man's life was in danger then to tell what he knew. The defense here offered in evidence the confession of Leavitt as a whole, and it was accepted. At this point the defense rested. The State had A. Lyon recalled. The questions put to him were with a view to impeachment. G. W. Schmidt, the witness who swore to viewing the murder from his window in the Columbia House, and who swore that Leavitt fired the shot, was recalled. "I have been at Lacrosse, Lake Benton, Marshall and New Ulm, in Minnesota," said the witness. "I lived six months with the Sheriff at New Ulm; was in jail there. I saw my wife last two years ago." J. C. Peterson was recalled for more cross-examination. He put in a general denial to all questions leading to impeachment. This ended the line of witnesses for the defense, and yesterday afternoon the State began to call the evidence in rebuttal. There is a large mass of testimony of this character to be reviewed and it will take several days for rebuttal testimony.

A Split in the Noble Party.
Chicago, April 9.—The first and immediate result of Tuesday's election is the divorce of the United Labor party from that of the socialists. Hereafter they have trained together and it is estimated that full one-half of the vote of 23,000 polled for Nelson on Tuesday came from the socialists. The result of this split will be that unless the union labor element should fuse with the democrats the city will have a republican administration for many years to come. The democrats cannot regain power without the aid of labor votes, while the election has shown that the socialist-labor fusion will have to increase its strength by nearly one-half to reach even the average republican strength.

Died of His Wounds.
Slater, Mo., April 9.—Joe Dennis, the man who was stabbed by J. H. Thomson, died to-day. Thomson escaped after the affray. Detective Henry Roscom has been hunting for him and to-day caught him and brought him to town. The fuss was about a comic valentine that Thomson accused Dennis of sending to him. After a few hot words they parted and Dennis thinking no more of it was met on the highway by Thomson, who stopped him and told him he wanted to settle that matter. Dennis laughed at him. Thomson drew a knife and stabbed him three times with the above result. Thomson was taken to the county jail last night and will be brought back this afternoon to have his preliminary trial.

A Woman Skips.
New York, April 9.—A rumor gained circulation in the lower part of the city late this afternoon that Katie Metz, the very important witness against the boodle aldermen, had skipped. Assistant District Attorney Nicoll when interrogated about the matter said he knew nothing about it.
